

Dedicated
To The People Of Bangla Desh

George Seferis

They told us, you will conquer when you submit.
We submitted and found dust and ashes.
They told us, you will conquer when you love.
We loved and found dust and ashes.
They told us, you will conquer when you give up your life.
We gave up our life and found dust and ashes.

Pablo Neruda

Those of us who love you are in all lands.
Who see in you the figure of the people.
We hear in your Voice chords not to be muted.
We march toward peace with you and with your people.
Your face is a banner that we see from our prisons,
And we follow the steps of each jailor.
By your example we shall grow.
We will be a multitude upon this earth.
Our energy will be an ocean's infinity.
Today's prisons will be tomorrow's victory.
